

Dickie Dyke, called in at the last minute as goalkeeper for Yeovil, is congratulated by trainer Stan Abbot.

Introduction to Cup-tie rejoicings down Somerset way. Yeovil supporters rush on to the field after their heroes had knocked Sunderland out of the Fourth Round of the Cup. The players were surrounded, patted, embraced, and eventually carried shoulder high in triumph to the dressing-rooms. And in the evening Yeovil townfolk made a victory night of it, with crowds of people wearing the club colours of green and white parading the streets.
