

Journey's End for Giant-Killers

YEOVIL SECTION RAISE THEIR VOICES

This was Somerset's own bit of ground in the huge Manchester stand, and Yeovil's supporters certainly made themselves heard among the 80,000 crowd. Pictured below are Manchester's fourth goal (left) scored at close range by centre-forward Burke and their fifth goal well placed near the post by the same forward. Full-back Davies made a brave effort to stop the goal:

FIRST MINUTE ATTACK BY YEOVIL.—Eric Bryant, Yeovil centre-forward, was just wide with a header in the opening stages of the Cup fight with Manchester. Below, Alec Stock, Yeovil player-manager, thanks his team for their fine sequence of Cup games at a dinner at the Midland Hotel after the match.

MANCHESTER GOALKEEPER, Crompton, saving a powerful shot from Bryant. Right, Yeovil supporter wishing Nick Collins good luck and, below, express drive by Rowley marks up goal No. 6 for the home side.
