

SUNDERLAND TEAM ARRIVES.—Players and directors of the Sunderland Football Club in the coach en route for Yeovil for their Cup match to-morrow after their arrival of Temple Meads, Bristol, last night.

ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN AT YEOVIL!

Yeovil's opening goal not only "brought the house down," but it brought down their supporters too. The two in the foreground hugged each other so enthusiastically in their excitement that they fell over. Top left: One of the conquering heroes is carried shoulder-high from the field.
