

Now for Battle of the Slope

First Division Sunderland will get a different slant on football to-day. They visit Southern League Yeovil in the Fourth Round of the F.A. Cup—and the Yeovil ground has an 8ft. tilt, as shown in this diagram.

The top diagram compares the dimensions of the Yeovil ground with Roker Park, where Sunderland play their home matches.

Yeovil players, who are given a daily ration of sherry, eggs and glucose, crowd round for the "Guv'nor's Grog," mixed by Mr. A. Hardy, a director of the club, after training yesterday.

Stan Hall, Yeovil's injured goalkeeper, yesterday. He has a fitness test this morning.

YEOVIL TOWN PLAYERS in training at Weston-super-Mare indulge in a little light-hearted fun with Babs Smart and James Lomas (appearing in the pantomime at Knightstone Theatre). The team hope to overcome another "giant" on Saturday.
