

Players, Past
And Present

MR. FRED BOND, 76-year-old life member of the Yeovil Football Club, who played for the team for 25 seasons, has a talk with Eric Bryant, the "Town's" centre-forward and highest scorer. Yeovil are training hard for their Cup-tie with Sunderland on Saturday. (Also see centre pages.)

PRESENTATION TO ALEC STOCK.—Yeovil Town F.C.'s player-manager being presented with a lucky horseshoe in the club colours by Ald. S. H. Vincent at the annual dinner of the South-Western (Divisional) Motor Agents' Association, Ltd., at the Manor Hotel. In the picture is Mr. H. S. Smith, chairman of the Yeovil club, and Mr. Douglas Seaton, president of the association.
