

'A morning after the day before' visit to Yeovil

This morning the "Daily Graphic" brings you exclusive pictures showing you how members of the Yeovil football club—Saturday's No. 1 surprise Cup-tie winners—spent their Sunday.

Playing at home, Yeovil—the only non-League club left in the Cup—had a decisive win over Bury. They won 3—1.

Bert Smith, the Club chairman, spent his Sunday morning opening the many telegrams of congratulations.

Mr. Bert Smith, chairman of the Yeovil club, spent a quiet day with his wife, son and their two dogs, but not without interruption. Messages of congratulations poured in all day.

Manager Alec Stock rested after a gruelling game, but like the rest of his players reported at the ground early, where he was toasted with champagne by his team-mates.

Not even the promise of an evening out could move Les Blizzard, centre-half, away from the fireside with his wife and child, but way out in the country centre-forward Bryant potted about his home, always followed by his two-year-old child, Janet.

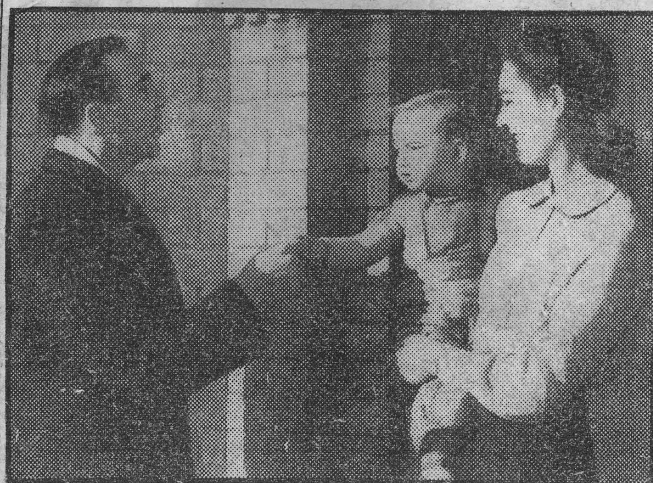

Only two miles away lives Ralph Davis, the only local boy in the side. Sunday was a quiet day for him, spent with his wife and two children in his new-acquired prefab.

Yeovil's player-manager, Alec Stock, was quite happy fetching logs for the fires.

Potting is Ray Wright's speciality—he scored one of Yeovil's goals in the Cup match. But yesterday he spent the morning doing a different kind of potting in his greenhouse.

Les Blizzard, centre-half, has a last word with his wife before going down to the Club ground.
