other half today. We're hoping visiting football fans from the big Championship clubs will bring their families down when they come to play. Let's hope they like what they see - because Yeovil is central for the whole West Country.

"It is a win-win situation for the entire region. Yes, I'd say this is the happiest town in England."

in an hugely optimistic mood. He said: "This is the biggest and best thing that's happened to the town - we've been on the map for many years, but this has put us on the national stage, big time.

"We had 20,000 people going to Wembley - the population here is 40,000 - so you basically had half the town up there on Sunday.

said: "This will bring a lot of money back to Yeovil - people will come here to see the town, and they will see it's a nice place - and hopefully spend more money here.

"I shall be welcoming them - and they will enjoy their taste of Somerset."

Mayor Manny Roper, who welcomed the team as the bus arrived to roaring cheers in the
