

IT'S A GOAL!—The crowd really let themselves go when Yeovil drew first blood with a fine goal by player-manager Alec Stock. It seemed too much for one young lad seen leaning against an ambulance man. On the left, Rex Rainey, Yeovil mascot, is shaking hands with Hall, the Sunderland captain.

DYKE flies to the rescue! The Yeovil goalkeeper punches the ball clear a split second before a Sunderland forward can get to it.
