

THIS INCIDENT from the great Cup-tie at Yeovil shows Dick Dyke, reserve goalkeeper, falling to the ground during an attempted clearance, but the goal is safely covered by Left-back Ralph Davis. Left: Ga'ly-dressed character who entertained the crowd before the kick-off. Right: Mapson, goalkeeper for Sunderland, and Hall, the visitors' captain, combine to stop a raid by Bryant, Yeovil's centre-forward. Extreme right: Schoolboys turned up in force to watch their favourites lick the giants from the North.
