

PACKED GOALMOUTH.—Example of Yeovil's sound defence as the two backs defend the goalmouth while goalkeeper Dick Dyke deals with a high shot. Below, if there were any groans at Yeovil, they came from the overburdened Supporters' Club stand, but not from the spectators on it!

Victor Dyke (left) hero of the match, receives the congratulations of the club's regular goalkeeper, Stan Hall, who could not play owing to injuries. (Daily Herald pictures.)

REX RAINEY, 10-year-old Yeovil mascot, shakes hands with the Sunderland captain before the start of the match. Rex has never seen Yeovil lose. Ask Sunderland.
