

Never a buzz quite like this, says Roberts

HE'S been there, and he's done it.

He's played in front of 100,000 crowds for England. He's held aloft Scottish Championship trophies at Glasgow Rangers.

He has mingled with the biggest stars in sport, and is on first name terms with showbiz personalities.

But when referee Ross blew the final whistle at Bromley at 9.15 pm on Tuesday, even Graham Roberts, that 37-year-old man-of-granite, was close to tears.

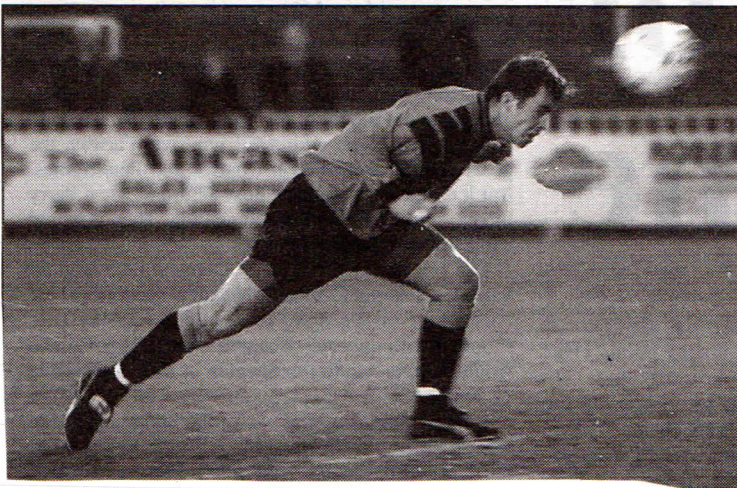

"I had a big lump in my throat", he said. "I had never felt quite like this.

"All the milestones in my career have been special, but I have always been performing for someone else.

The goals...

● HOWARD Forinton scoring the goals that clinched the ICIS League title for Yeovil Town at Bromley. Above, he knocks in an 18th minute penalty that gave Yeovil the lead, and below he follows up to head in after a second penalty was blocked by the goalkeeper.

THE DAILY TELEGRAPH

● Yeovil beat Bromley 2-1 last night to secure the ICIS League title and return to the Vauxhall Conference after two years. Top-scorer Howard Forinton took his tally for the season to 36 by claiming both Yeovil's goals.

IT'S OVERS!