Our Visitors

Today's visitors are having their best season in the Premier Division to date and are sure to provide us with strong opposition. Pen Pictures of the selected side are :—

Chandler (goal-keeper). In his second season since joining the Club from Cambridge City. Had League experience with Bristol Rovers and Swindon.

Vallard (right-back). Assisted the Town as an amateur and represented England Youth before joining Reading as a professional. Later transferred to Oxford. In his second season with the visitors.

Noon (left-back). This former Bradford City and Notts County player is also in his second season.

Howells (right-half). Was First team choice as pivot for Cambridge United last season. Is adapting himself well as a wing-half.

Clarkson (centre-half). Considered one of the best pivots in the League. Has previously assisted Third Lanark, Fulham and Oxford.

Jones (left-half). Signed from Margate during the close season, has also assisted Ramsgate.

Woods (outside-right). Still on Watford's transfer list he joined the visitors this season, has also assisted Cambridge United.

Denial (inside-right). A newcomer to the visitors but has previously visited Huish with Oxford.

Bailey (centre-forward). Still only 19 years old, he has assisted Glasgow Rangers, Brighton and Cambridge Utd.

Devitt (inside-left). Another newcomer with a transfer fee on his head, the Club in question this time being Bradford City.

Sharkey (inside-left). A ball playing inside forward who commenced his career with East Fife. Was a regular in last years successful Cambridge United side.

Withers (outside-left). A player with vast experience having served Blackpool, Lincoln and Notts County in turn.
