Our Visitors

Chelmsford, like the Town, have made few new signings, being content to rely on the players who came so near to pulling off the championship last year. Pen Pictures of the selected side are appended:—

Medlock (goal-keeper). Joined the visitors from Oxford last season. Previously assisted Chelsea and Swindon. Aged 27.

Ling (right-back). Signed in the middle of last season from Romford and kept his First team place regularly after Christmas. Aged 28.

Gillott (left-back). Captains the side and is an experienced defender. Previously with Barnsley. He won eight Youth International Caps. Aged 29.

Salt (right-half). An accomplished wing-half with a wealth of experience gained with Blackpool. Joined the visitors from Cambridge City last season. Aged 26.

Eades (centre-half). An Irishman, he has graduated from the Chelmsford Youth XI, via the Reserves to the First team. A most promising pivot. Aged 20.

Smith (left-half). In his second season since joining Chelmsford from Barnsley. Possesses all the qualities of an attacking wing-half. Aged 23.

Maughan (outside-right). Joined the visitors from Reading last season. Previously assisted Southampton. Can play equally well at inside-forward. Aged 25.

Butcher (inside-right). A local boy with a flair for scoring goals. Signed professional forms in 1955 and has since been the subject of several enquiries from League Scouts. Aged 27.

Wilson (centre-forward). The most experienced member of the front line. Started his career with Notts Forest before transfer to Walsall. Joined the visitors along with Salt from Cambridge City. Aged 34.

Smillie (inside-left). An experienced forward having had spells with Barnsley and Lincoln City. Fast and clever. Aged 29.

Nicholas (outside-left). Joined Brighton from Chelsea for a fee of £15,000. Is in his second season with Chelmsford. Aged 26.
